

Rising Medical Solutions Receives Five National and Regional “Top Workplaces” Awards

Employee Satisfaction Earns Rising Multiple Employer of Choice Honors

October 7, 2024 – Chicago, IL – Rising Medical Solutions (Rising) today announced that it is a five-time Top Workplaces winner, earning three national and two regional recognitions from the Top Workplaces program within the past 14 months. Most recently, the company was named to the inaugural list of Remote Work Top Workplaces by Monster, a global online leader in employee recruitment. Rising is one of only 198 US employers to receive the 2024 distinction.

Earlier this year, USA Today also recognized Rising as a 2024 Top Workplaces USA winner, while the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel and Chicago Tribune named Rising a regional Top Workplace for the company’s respective offices in each city. Anchoring these four industry-spanning awards is Rising’s 2023 Top Workplaces win for the national healthcare sector.

The Top Workplaces program celebrates organizations that prioritize people-first cultures and create exceptional workplace environments. Only 3 percent of eligible organizations are chosen to receive Top Workplaces recognition, and honorees are based solely on confidential responses to an employee feedback survey administered by Energage, an independent HR technology company. Winners are announced in partnership with national and regional media outlets.

Built on 17 years of culture research and survey results from 27 million employees across more than 70,000 organizations, benchmark data used for the Top Workplaces program is some of the most credible available.

“Earning consistent recognition as a premier workplace across job markets and industry sectors speaks volumes about the employees who drive our company culture, and who share in our values of compassion, excellence, and teamwork,” said Rising CEO Jason Beans. “Our employee experience sets the tone for our customer experience, and we invest heavily in creating an environment where employees can do their best work.”

The success of this approach is reflected in the cultural differentiators employees ranked highest in the Energage-administered survey. Rising earned top scores in multiple categories, including purpose and values, supportive managers, innovation, and work-life flexibility.

“Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “That's something to be proud of. In today's market, leaders must ensure they're allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That's paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends.”
